RECENT SERVICE ACTIVITIES

Conception and development of the National Nursing Education Research Network (NNERN), a collaborative of nursing schools committed to collecting a uniform core of measures in annual surveys of faculty and students to support longitudinal study of issues critical to academic nursing, 2014-present

- Hosted and chaired meetings in Indianapolis, Chicago, and Washington DC with executive leadership of the major nursing education organizations: American Association of Colleges of Nursing, National League for Nursing, National Council of State Boards of Nursing, Sigma Theta Tau International Honors Society, 2014-2015
- Designed and maintained interactive web-interface to the data base from our national survey of nurse faculty, permitting individual nursing programs to produce customized distributions comparing their own faculty members to national averages; serves as a prototype for Research Network, 2012
(<http://www.evaluatinginnovationsinnursing.org/nufaqs-nurse-faculty-data-query/>)

- Secured planning grant and recruited two prominent academic nursing leaders to head the network, 2015
- Serve on advisory board, 2015-present

Organized and chaired four national, nursing education research conferences: Albuquerque NM (2011), Orlando FL (2011), Portland OR (2013). And Philadelphia PA (2015)

Disseminated findings from childhood obesity chartbooks at community meetings in Trenton, Camden, Newark, New Brunswick, and Vineland; findings were cited widely in designing initiatives and securing funding in those cities, including Corey Booker and Michelle Obama's ceremony launching Let's Move (November, 2010), Campbell Soup Company's announcement of its commitment of $10 million to address childhood obesity in Camden (2011), and announcement of a collaboration between Nestle Foods Corporation and the City of Newark (2012)
