Acting Dean, School of Social Work, Rutgers University

Oversaw fourth largest school of social work in the nation, with 60 full-time faculty, approximately 130 staff, 175 part-time lecturers, and 1,500 students across the BASW, MSW, PhD, and DSW levels on three separate campuses (Newark, New Brunswick, and Camden). Supported four centers and one Institute for Families at the school to promote significant collaboration with the health, mental health, disabilities, addiction and child welfare arms of the state of New Jersey. Special work in my administration included (1) fostering a smooth leadership transition that built on the accomplishments of the former dean and nurtured newly-initiated programs, that included the Addiction Certificate Program (ACT), a joint endeavor with the State's Department of Addiction Services to train dually certified MSW and Addiction counselors, and the Doctorate in Social Work (DSW) program; (2) creating fully online and hybrid online MSW programs to improve access to post-graduate social work education; (3) establishing a student philanthropy program to reduce MSW student debt;(4) developing a grant facilitating team that increased successful faculty research productivity, by doubling the grant success rate; (5) securing a $400,000 Foundation grant to help the victims of Hurricane Sandy by training MSW social work students and field instructors in mental health disaster relief in agencies affected by the storm; (6) planning for the state-legislated integration of Rutgers with the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey.

January 2009-June 2011

Associate Dean for Faculty Development, School of Social Work, Rutgers University

Responsibilities included (1) creating mentoring and development activities for 15 assistant professors, that included developing mentoring committees composed of mentors internal to the school and ones in allied disciplines in the wider university; (2) overseeing and managing promotion and tenure processes that complied with university policies and procedures(10 faculty decisions); (3) chairing the search committee for hiring of new tenured and tenure-track faculty (7 hires); (4) creating faculty task forces for faculty development policies (e.g., on lead teaching and travel); (5) together with faculty developing school-wide procedures for the creation of secondary faculty appointments to the school.
